Barnstable County Fair
MC. 19

Extent: One box

Historical Note: The Barnstable Agricultural Society was established in 1843 and incorporated in 1844. The first exhibition and fair was held at the Court House in Barnstable in 1844. In 1854 an agricultural hall was built in the Cummaquid section of Barnstable where the fair was hosted until it closed in 1932. The fair was resurrected for the 1939 Tercentenary but would remain closed until 1954 when it reopened in Marstons Mills. In 1973 it moved to Falmouth and has remained in annual operation at that location ever since.

Scope and Content Note: This collection consists of documents, fliers, pictures, newspaper clippings and memorabilia concerning the Barnstable County Fair. Most of the material comes from the period when the Fair was located in the village of Barnstable.
